

EUROPEAN AROID — SOCIETY

Ranging from the smallest flowering species in the world to some of the largest, such as the corpse flower, Amorphophallus titanum. Or from the Monstera deliciosa in your living room, to the unexplored wilderness in Borneo, the European Aroid Society brings you the latest aroid news and information from across the globe. Visit aroid.eu to join today and grow with us!